Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This office action is in response to Amendment filed 9/30/04.

Specification

2. The use of the trademarks UPS, USPS, FedEx, Mailboxes Etc., and Airborne Express have been noted in this application. It should be capitalized wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nicholls et al. (5,485,369).

5. With respect to Claims 1-21: Nicholls discloses the use of a shipping computer system (see abstract), with a method of using the system and a computer program located on the computer system, which instructs the computer to (column 4, lines 8-24, and columns 15-27) collect parcel specifications, such as weight and dimensions as well as origin and destination addresses (Figures 4A and 4B) and a default location (columns 17 and 18, Table II), and to use shipping rules to calculate rates for the shipment (column 4, lines 49-55, column 5, lines 34-40, columns 25 and 26, line 39). Nicholls discloses using the origin and destination zip codes and zones (column 8, lines 43-55). Nicholls discloses each carrier having a set of shipping requirements and a predefined rate structure (column 2, lines 17-19, column 4, lines 49-55 and claim 1), and identifying and displaying the carriers along with the rates of services, for each of the parcels according to the rules (See Figures 4B, 4C and 4D, column 2, lines 32-38, column 7, lines 25-29 and claim 1) for each carrier. Nicholls discloses storing this information into a database (Column 7, lines 53-67). Nicholls discloses this system to be used over a global network (Column 3, lines 38-45).

Art Unit: 3629

Response to Arguments

6. With respect to the specification objection with regards to the use of trademarks. The applicant has stated that these objections were fixed, however the applicant has failed to amend the specification in regards to any of the trademarks listed in the objection. The only trademark that was corrected was the ones used by iship.com. The trademarks with respect to the carriers listed in the objection are still objected to, as stated above.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 9/30/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

8. With respect to Applicant's argument that Nicholls is not directed to multiple users and a plurality of carriers: Nicholls does not disclose that this can be used for only one user, Nicholls discloses the use of multiple users and multiple shippers/carriers (See Figures 2 and 3A).

Nicholls discloses that each user registers with the system and gives the user's address (See Columns 17 and 18), which the examiner considers this to be a default address, since it is used for home shipping. It is obvious to each user will have a different home address and therefore would have a distinct shipping location and distinct shipping address. The examiner considers Nicholls to disclose this feature as well as the claimed invention, therefore the rejection stands as stated above.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
